FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the Office of the Attorney General, the Office of State Courts Administrator, and the Department of Public Safety – Missouri State Highway Patrol assume the proposed legislation would have no fiscal impact on their agencies.

Officials from the Office of Prosecution Services (OPS) assume the proposal could increase the workload of certain county prosecutors; however, OPS assumes that any impact would be minimal and could be absorbed with existing resources.

Officials from the Office of the State Public Defender (SPD) assume that existing staff could provide representation for the 5 to 10 cases arising where indigent persons are charged with interstate harassment. However, passage of more than one similar proposal could require the SPD to request increased appropriations to cover the cumulative cost of representing the indigent accused.

Oversight assumes the provision which changes the crime of harassment from a misdemeanor charge to a felony charge could have a fiscal impact on the Department of Corrections. Costs would likely be less than $100,00 annually.
